Douglas Mandel, Alex Zylberglait, David Walsh, Clare Lavery, Andrew Nadal and Nicole Santander

Marcus & Millichap named nine senior vice president investments, including two in South Florida. Office and industrial specialists Douglas K. Mandel, based in Fort Lauderdale, and Alex D. Zylberglait, based in Miami, were both promoted.

CRE Florida Partners' CRE Rauch Lupo Robertson hired David Walsh as a multifamily specialist and senior investment associate in the company's Boca Raton office. Walsh, who relocated from Arizona, has experience in the acquisition, management and disposition of multifamily investment grade assets.

Swire Properties tapped Clare Lavery as assistant vice president of marketing and public relations for the company and Brickell City Centre, the $1.05 billion mixed-use project in the Brickell Financial District. Lavery relocated from Hong Kong to South Florida to oversee the overall marketing, public relations and advertising strategies. She will also be part of Brickell City Centre's East Hotel launch at the end of this year.

ONE Sotheby's International Realty hired Andrew Nadal as a senior associate. Nadal will be based in Coral Gables and focus on investment sales and leasing throughout Miami-Dade County. Nadal was previously a sales representative with Costar Group.

Gadinsky Real Estate hired Nicole Santander for its Miami Beach team as a retail real estate representative. In her new role, Santander works with the development, brokerage and leasing of retail properties throughout South Florida. She was an account manager at Q&M Southern Management managing operations, marketing and financial activities for the company's restaurants including La Fogota Restaurants. – Katherine Kallergis
